

Epiphany Meal

Drucilla's Inn, Horton

10th January 2009

Wessex Region

George shamed us all by having set off by bike from near Worthing when the temperature was still -7° C! (Apparently he has been keeping his bike in the village as when it is icy the hill he lives on becomes slippery! You have to admire his dedication/enjoyment in motorcycling. Not sure I enjoy motorcycling more than I dislike freezing.) Patrick set off in -2°! Brave hardy souls. The rest of us all came by car (sissies!).

It was a beautiful day, with a hoar frost making the country look stunning. My camera was snapping like mad, trying to capture it. We had a pleasant (warm) drive to Three Cross motorcycles and met Patrick and George there. Had a pleasant wander around the showrooms before heading on to Drusilla's Inn in Horton. Patrick headed home as he had guests (doubly mad, as he probably had only just thawed out!). Pleasant meal and chat, over all too soon.
