It would be great to know a little about you and to know what help and hospitality you may be able to offer other FCM members. We are keen not to impose ourselves on each other so please do not feel obliged to offer if you are unable. We do however encourage fellowship among members in addition to organised events so this information is helpful to know. This information, along with your address and telephone number, will be published in our annual Directory of FCM Members, which is distributed only among FCM members.

What bike/s do you own?

What other, if any, motorcycling clubs do you belong to?

Would you be able to offer hospitality to other FCM members? i.e. overnight accommodation. If so how much notice would you like, how many people etc?

Would you be willing to offer help to other FCM members if they break down near where you live? If so what sort of help, within what distance etc?

What other skills or talents do you have which may be of use to FCM?

Agreement: For as long as I remain a member of FCM I have no objection to any of the above information being held on a computer for FCM purposes. For as long as I remain a member of FCM I have no objection to any of the above details being published in the Directory of FCM Members. (Delete if necessary)

The Two Great Commandments:

“Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.” This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: “Love your neighbour as yourself.” All the law and the prophets hang on these two commandments.

Matthew 22 vv 37 & 38

Jesus Christ, God's Son, is our Saviour

“For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have everlasting life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.”

John 3 vv 16 & 17
